God's Generous Love

Our painting by Aldo Carpi (1886-1973) shows the Virgin Mary bringing the Baby Jesus to visit the poor. She doesn't make distinctions. Mary understood that Jesus didn't come just for the rich and powerful but for everyone.

Peter learns this lesson when speaking to Cornelius and his household. Until this time, the apostles were preaching to the Jewish people, but when Peter speaks to these Romans, the Holy Spirit comes upon them just as he had upon the Jews. They repent and believe. This for Peter was essential, because it showed that Jesus wanted to send his Spirit and teachings to everyone, not just the chosen race. God doesn't show favoritism.

The same goes for us. It's natural to want to love our own: our family and those sharing our social status, political party, club, school, or parish. But our love has to spread to all peoples, especially those in the most moral, material, and spiritual need. God is love, and those who love show they come from God.

Another element of love is that it is free, wanting nothing in return. Recently, while sitting at an outdoor café, a woman walked up and gave me a small wrapped gift. "I like to give gifts to complete strangers, just to make their day," she said. What a beautiful gesture.

We should also note that Cornelius accepted God's love, was baptized, and began following the Way. He and his family didn't take that free love of God for granted. They responded to it in joyful obedience. God's generous love asks for an equally generous response. —Fr. Mark Haydu, LC

For Reflection

How often do I help or love someone who disagrees with me, or doesn't believe what I believe?

We, the blended Catholic community of St. Ignatius Loyola, draw strength from Word and Sacrament, especially in the celebration of the Eucharist. Modeling Christ's work, we embrace our commitment to God's call. We remain faithful to the shared acts of prayer, study and service.

WEEKLY MEDITATION

“As the Father loves me, so also I love you. Remain in my love.”

In today's Gospel, Jesus tells us that He loves us and to remain in His love. What an awesome and profound thought. Sometimes it is hard for us to feel loved, yet we are. God loves all of us. EVERYONE! And He wants us to remain in His love. How? By keeping the commandments and loving each other. What He asks is not easy, but it is necessary. Let us strive to always remain in His love.

*The Altar Breads and Wine for this week are

Think gospel! Please make room for your neighbor in Church and slide to the center of the pew.

In recognition of our need to give, and the many needs of our church and parish, and in gratitude for God's gifts to us, we declare our willingness to return a portion of our Treasure to our parish, as part of our total Christian stewardship.

BUILDING A YOUTH AND FAMILY MINISTRY

ONE STEP AT A TIME . . .

At a recent meeting, Fathers McKernan and Mosley, parents, church leaders and others interested in the youth of our parish began a discussion on building a Youth and Family Ministry Program at St. Ignatius. Ms. Shannon Kowalski, coordinator for youth programs in the Diocese, led an interactive discussion in which she shared her experiences in developing programs for youth. After several questions and many suggestions, the group recommended that we schedule a meeting with our parish youth and listen to their concerns and suggestions. Ms. Kowalski agreed to facilitate this session which will be held on Sunday, May 20th at 6:00 PM in Bergan Parish Center. The comments gleaned from that meeting will be used to help us formulate the next step toward our ultimate goal.

Don't forget! Food Collection each and every weekend at the vestibules of the Church and Chapel.

PIEROGI BOARD NEWS

SERVICE—HELPING OTHERS

MOTHER TERESA'S HAVEN

St. Ignatius Parish will once again be hosting Mother Teresa's Haven in Conlan Hall for two weeks in early June (June 4 –17), and then again for one week in mid September (September 17-23 September.)

We are currently looking for different sponsor groups to plan, supply, and cook meals for each of the 21 nights across these two sessions. In addition, we welcome any individuals who can help support the work of Mother Teresa's Haven on any of the scheduled nights—from helping with kitchen prep, to serving, to sharing fellowship with our guests, to dishwashing and cleaning up.

- Sponsor groups (usually 4 to 6 people per group) cover all aspects of their given night, from planning the meal, to shopping for food, to cooking and serving the meal, to cleaning up. Dinner is served at 5:30 each night, and clean up is usually completed by around 8:00. Members from volunteer groups who are cooking the meal that evening should plan to arrive earlier as needed for food preparation.
- Individuals who want to offer supplemental support (from kitchen prep through clean up) on any given night are always welcome.

We welcome and invite any food donations parishioners might be able to offer in support of this ministry. Breads and homemade desserts are especially welcome. If you would like to help and become involved with this ministry, or if you have any questions about how you might help and become involved, please contact Tom Hamill (570-852-1183) or Mike Stretanski (570-817-3430). We look forward to hearing from you—and to working with you. God bless.

CATHOLIC COMMUNICATION CAMPAIGN COLLECTION

This collection will be held next weekend, May 12th & 13th. This campaign connects people with Christ, here and around the world in developing countries, through the internet, television, radio, and print media. Fifty percent of funds collected remain in our diocese. Thank you for your support. Please make checks payable to St. Ignatius Loyola Church as we will forward one check to the Diocese.
