Is Christ Divided?

You're breaking the back of the body of Christ!" Saint Paul might have said this to members of the Corinthian community who rival each other, claiming that the leader who baptized them is greater than the one who baptized others: "I belong to Paul...I belong to Apollos...I belong to Cephas" (1 Corinthians 1:12). This suggests that, based on their baptizer, the members themselves are superior. Such rivalry sounds so petty. We should be careful here, because some of this rivalry still exists in the Church.

In any healthy group there will be diverse opinions. We all have our own tastes, preferences, cultural habits, and so on. This is true in church music, preaching style, and religious devotion. The uniformity of the Church prior to the Second Vatican Council has given way to great diversity. What is different is not necessarily bad. Nor is our preference necessarily superior. Such diversity need not pit us against each other, but sometimes it does. Is Christ divided over points of preference?

We are all part of the body of Christ; we are all God's beloved. The diversity among us challenges us to work toward the common good, to "be united in the same mind and in the same purpose" (1 Corinthians 1:10). Let us not divide Christ.

—Sr. Dianne Bergant, CSA

FOR Reflection

- ★ How do you act toward someone who understands faith differently? Do you respect their viewpoint or automatically ignore them?
- ★ Which religious voices do you listen to? Why?

From that time on, Jesus began to preach and say, "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand."

MATTHEW 4:17

We, the blended Catholic community of St. Ignatius Loyola, draw strength from Word and Sacrament, especially in the celebration of the Eucharist. Modeling Christ's work, we embrace our commitment to God's call. We remain faithful to the shared acts of prayer, study and service.

Together we extend Christ's hospitality to others and light the path of peace for generations to come.

Please join us for our new Bible Studies session.

Starting on Wednesday, February 12th at 1:00 PM in Bergan Hall and continuing each week until April 1st, the Adult Faith Formation Team will facilitate an eight week study entitled Psalms for All Seasons, Part II. Each week participants will read specific psalms, view a video which provides insight into the text and discuss their reactions. There is a $16.00 fee to participate, which includes a commentary and study guide. Anyone, who participated in the Psalms, Part I during the fall and wishes to continue will need to purchase only the Study Guide at $8.00. It is not a problem if you did not participate in the first part of the study since the psalms are independent of any story line. Please call the rectory at 570-288-6446 to reserve your spot and indicate if you need the Set $16.00 (both commentary and study guide) or the study guide at $8.00.

PALMS FOR ASH WEDNESDAY

On Wednesday, February 26th, Ash Wednesday, each of us will be visibly Catholic and marked by an ashen cross on the forehead. This symbol is not only a sign of public penance, but also our link to Palm Sunday of last year. The ashes should be of the burnt palm we have had in our homes since last year. It will be burned and the resulting ash used to sign the faithful at the beginning of Lent. Baskets for palm branches will be available in the Church and Chapel beginning next weekend. We encourage your participation in this aspect of our Lenten liturgy.

CONGRATULATIONS

Through the Sacrament of Baptism we joyfully welcome into our Christian community the following baby: Luke Cameron Blewitt. Many prayers to him as he begins his new life in Christ Jesus.

If you purchased tickets for our St. Ignatius Night at the Penguins hockey game (February 7, 2020), they can be picked up either at the rectory or at weekend Masses from January 25 through February 4, 2020.

St. Ignatius Loyola Parish will establish a Bereavement Committee which will minister to our families who have experienced the loss of a loved one. The Committee will establish teams who will be organized/trained to conduct the prayer services at the funeral homes. In addition members of the committee will also provide cards periodically throughout the year after the death to support the family. This is truly a Corporal Work of Mercy which are charitable actions by which we help others in their time of need. Please prayerfully consider this ministry and plan on attending an information meeting to be held on Tuesday, January 28th at 6:30 PM in Conlan Hall. Thank you.

WEEKLY MEDITATION

The Call

As Jesus calls his apostles at the beginning of his ministry, their response is worthy of our consideration. They followed without hesitation. How do I respond to Jesus' invitation? Do I follow his example in my daily life? At home? At work? At prayer?

Don't forget! Food Collection each and every weekend at the vestibules of the Church and Chapel.

These values come to children in all parts of the Cub Scout program—all while they're having a great time with their friends and families. During the retreat, participants take part in small group tasks that allow the student to make good decisions, examine leadership styles, practice leadership behavior, learn about positive communication, and develop self-motivational skills and learn problem solving and action planning techniques. The entirety of the retreat helps students to explore and express faith values in the Catholic Tradition. Complete applications are required by Sunday, February 2, 2020 and can be found at dioceseofscranton.org. JANUARY 26, 2020
SUNDAY OF THE WORD OF GOD

To show that God is at the center of their lives, many families enthrone the Bible, the Word of God, in a visible place in their homes. Read a Scripture passage and pray: We have heard Your Words, Jesus. They give us joy and bring light and truth into our lives. Your presence gives us peace in our troubled and divided world. Let Your Word create in our hearts a deep desire for You. Be with us in our hearts and homes, community and country. Give us Your Holy Spirit to help us understand Your Word. We enthrone now this Bible in our midst. Make Your Word the center of our lives. May Your Word inspire all that we think and say and do. May Your Word bind us together in unity with each other and with You, today and forever. Amen.
 All then join in saying the Lord’s Prayer.

2019 FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

All parishioners should have received a financial statement last week in the mail. If anyone has questions regarding their statement please contact the office. Thank you for your kind attention to this matter.
