What's in a Name?

In this painting the upper scene shows Peter and Andrew walking toward Jesus. The lower central scene depicts Peter in the center, with Andrew behind him, and Jesus enthroned on a rock pointing toward him.

The scene is simple for a reason. Jesus' call is simple: Follow me. Our response should be simple, too. We often complicate the call with questions, fears, or doubts, wanting clarifications and assurances. But it is a simple imperative that requires a one-word answer: yes or no. Or as Samuel responded, "Speak, LORD for your servant is listening."

Once accepted, the call implies a new identity born of a new, deeper relationship. When Jesus calls Simon, he changes his name. In the Bible, a name change indicates a new mission or purpose. Abram was renamed Abraham to father the Old Testament people in faith.

Simon is now Cephas, or rock. His mission is to father the New Testament people in faith. He is to be a solid, unbreakable foundation for his brothers—and eventually the whole Church. His strength comes not from perfection, for we know Peter was weak, but from his acceptance of Jesus' love and call no matter his own weakness.

Similarly, in baptism and confirmation we take new names that come with our new, deeper calls. It is a meaningful Catholic tradition that parents name their children after a saint who becomes a model for their lives. Like Peter, we are called to greatness by Jesus, who looks at us, names us, and says, "Come follow me." Let's live up to that beautiful, simple invitation!

For Reflection

Are you named after a saint or someone in particular? If so, how does that saint or person inspire you?

*[Jesus said,] "You are Simon the son of John;
you will be called Cephas which is translated Peter."*

(John 1:42)

We, the blended Catholic community of St. Ignatius Loyola, draw strength from Word and Sacrament, especially in the celebration of the Eucharist. Modeling Christ's work, we embrace our commitment to God's call. We remain faithful to the shared acts of prayer, study and service.

Together we extend Christ's hospitality to others and light the path of peace for generations to come.

"Knowing God is more important than knowing about God." - Karl Rahner, S.J.

Let us continue to thank God for those who came before us and to pray for one another and our future.

WEEKLY MEDITATION

Today's scripture centers upon the Lord's calling to come to Him, first to Samuel, and then to Andrew and Peter. We, too, are summoned to follow Jesus. It may be through a sudden flash of emotion or as subtle as a whisper. If we but quiet our minds from distraction and commotion, we may feel the stirrings of the Holy Spirit within us. Come to faith and follow Jesus. Come and you will see.

CHRISTIAN SABBATH KEEPING THE LORD'S DAY HOLY

We are to keep the Word of God that calls us to keep Sunday as a day of prayer and rest. The center of the Christian "Lord's Day" is to come and assemble with the community at Holy Mass.
